1. Course Description

In recent years the conflicts over trade between superpowers have become more serious. As a basic study of international economic policy theory, first of all, students can be explained the basic theory of trade and trade policy, and the actual effects and the role of historical trade policies. Next, students can be considered the significance of free trade and the recent trend of protectionism. The goal of the lesson is to understand the basic theory of trade. Students will be able to improve their skills by solving self exercise and homework with LMS.
