

International Development I

Syllabus Number

INR-303

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

KAWAGUCHI, Jun

1. Course Description

The aim of this course is to systematically understand the theory and practice of international development. The aim of International Development I is to grasp the reality of developing countries from various perspectives and to understand the development issues that each country is facing. In the first half of the class, the lecturer will provide some lectures, and in the second half, the students will have the opportunity to discuss their own interests.