

社会的養護Ⅰ

Syllabus Number

SWS-301

Elective

2 credit

SASAKI, Sawako

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to learn and understand the basic concept of social support for children who have difficulty being cared for at home due to various reasons, the actual situation of institutional childcare, and support methods. By coming into contact with various information on social support, students will acquire the attitude to consider the support and expertise required of childcare professionals.