

Logic 1

Syllabus Number

PHE-105

[II]

Elective 2

credit

UTA, Hiroshi

1. Course Description

Being “Logical” generally means being “consistent” and “not contradictory” in arguments. To put it differently, when arguments are made through “consistent reasoning”, these arguments are considered logical. In this course, students will learn the way to make the consistent reasoning through examining examples taken from arguments in everyday life.