

Introduction to Sign Language Communication 1

Syllabus Number

SNE-101

Elective

2 credit

TAMEKAWA, Yuji

1. Course Description

Sign language is not an alternative communication, but one language as same as other oral language. In this class, sign language (including finger alphabet) will be taught, as the introduction of communication in new language. Moreover, some situation around the people with hearing impaired will be introduced.