

Economy of Tama Region I

Syllabus Number ECP-201
Elective 2 credit
TOKUMASU, Hidehiro

1. Course Description

The Tama area is located in the western part of the Tokyo metropolitan area, and companies with high added value technology are accumulating. In addition, many small and medium enterprises with research and development and basic technology are located in the vicinity of large companies.

In the lecture, students learn about the current situation and development process of industries in the Tama area, industry in the area through industry-academia-government collaboration and support organization activities.