1. Course Description

This seminar aims to write a research proposal for a master's thesis. During this semester, each student sets his or her own research theme roughly, collect material for it, and organize and analyze it. Based on that, each student narrows down the subject. In order to complete the research proposal, each student clarifies the purpose of the research, what is revealed in previous researches, the organization of the master's thesis, and the outline of the survey he or she is going to conduct for the master's thesis. Also, they learn how to write a thesis and collect and organize material in order to write their master's thesis.
