

Introduction to Library and Information Resources

Syllabus Number

LIH-105

Librarians' Program

Elective 2 credit

SAKAI, Yukiko

1. Course Description

Introduction to library and information resources. Topics include feature of various types of resources, selection, acquisition, preservation, assessment and review process of collection, and basics of the publishing industry. Encourages students to consider issues surrounding libraries, publishers, and internet media.