

Economics I

Syllabus Number

ECO-101

[IV]

Elective

2

credit

LEE, Chanwoo

1. Course Description

Economics I surveys the fundamental and basic ideas and concepts involved in modern economy and provides students with an understanding of how the economy works at the fields of companies, households and governments.

In this course we are primarily concerned with the analysis of individual decision making units and the behavior of firms and industries, and also take a step forward to fields of macro finance and social security system in modern society.