

警察政策Ⅱ

Syllabus Number

CRL-204

Elective

2 credit

NUSHI, Junko

1. Course Description

In the Police Policy II, we learn about the organizational structure of Japanese police and police duties in the various fields such as community safety, criminal investigation, fighting organized crimes, traffic safety, and security police. The goal of this class is to understand the current situation of our country, police related major laws, outline of police operations and basic police policies for a safe and secure society.