Education Information Literacy

1. Course Description

Elementary education course students can take this course.

This course designed to give students "methods of information education", " methods of using ICT in subjects' guidance" and " methods of informatization of school management duties".

Each student should bring a Windows PC.