

Asian Economy II

Syllabus Number

ECP-306

Elective

2 credit

LEE, Chanwoo

1. Course Description

The world's rapidest economic growth has occurred in Asia, the region which is also an important economic partner of Japan. An insight into the Asian economy will help obtaining information indispensable for economic development of Japan.

This course examines the concrete situations, policies and tasks of each economy of Asian countries, keeping in mind the vision of economic cooperation between Japan and Asia, on the basis of comprehensive understanding of Asian economies which students has got at the course of Asian Economy I.