

Seminar III

Syllabus Number

SEM-401

Compulsory 2
credit

KITAMI, Ryoji

1. Course Description

In this course, students are initiated to study the cases and issues- mainly in the field of obligation-, which deserve special attention from the view point of financial transactions, as well as touching the related territory of Civil and Commercial laws. Also presentation and explanatory skills should be brushed up in this process so that they will fulfil the general professional standard.