

Seminar III

Syllabus Number

SEM-401

Compulsory 2
credit

NAKAOKA, Jun

1. Course Description

This seminar aims to help students have a comprehensive understanding of various issues regarding the fundamental human rights and the government under the Constitution of Japan. Students will be required to research and report on chosen or assigned cases and areas of constitutional law and participate in class discussions and debates.