

子ども家庭支援論

Syllabus Number

SWS-303

Elective

2 credit

SASAKI, Sawako

1. Course Description

The purpose of this course is to understand the basic concept of child and family support required of childcare professionals, and to acquire the perspective of providing support for the needs of individual users and situations, such as children and families, while collaborating with multiple professions and institutions and connecting with social resources in the community. Through group work and discussion, students will deepen their own thoughts on child and family support while sharing them with others.