

Clinical Assessment of the Criminal

Syllabus Number

SOP-204

Elective

2 credit

SAIBA, Masahiro

1. Course Description

In this class, students will learn the characteristics and causes of various crimes and how effective treatment should be done to reduce each crime. I will provide information about the occurrence of crimes and the causes of crimes by type of crime. And it provides information about applicable ways to treat criminals. I would like students to deepen their knowledge of various crimes and participate in classes with the attitude of thinking about solutions for themselves when they face these issues.