

Public Speaking II

Syllabus Number

ENG-120

Compulsory Elective

1 credit

SIGEL, Byon

1. Course Description

This is not an English conversation class. Rather, this class will focus on developing the wide range of skills needed in order to prepare and deliver a speech effectively to a large audience. Classes will focus on acquiring and utilizing a variety of public speaking skills to achieve specific objectives. These skills are taught through a focus on situational speaking and speaking by objective.

The semester will combine two complementary activities:

1. Learning Good Public Speaking Techniques
2. Learning How to Create a Speech by Objective
