1. Course Description

Do you want to know the secrets to effective English communication? In this TESOL class you will learn the most effective ways to study, learn and teach English. We will start with the history of English language learning; then discuss both effective and ineffective methods to learn and teach English. From there we move on to goal setting and motivation theories, followed by how to use technology, apps, and your smart device effectively. We will also cover the secrets to better speaking and listening skills. We will also analyze successful test takers (TOEIC) and English speakers to learn why and how they are successful.
