

Japanese Legal History II

Syllabus Number

FUL-206

Compulsory Elective
2 credit

TANAKA, Toshimitsu

1. Course Description

This course deals with the legal history of Japan to students taking this course.

The purpose of this lecture is to acquire a knowledge of the process of Western modernization of law in the Meiji period from a historical perspective, such as a state organ, judicial power, criminal law, and family law.