

経営学演習 II

Compulsory 2
credit

OSHIMO, Shigeru

1. Course Description

The theme of this seminar is to learn methods to revitalize the local community as a field. Students will use the basic skills acquired in the spring semester to write their master's thesis, which is the compilation of the seminar. The seminar aims to create a research plan that summarizes the research structure, features in terms of previous research, organization of reference materials and hypotheses for the chapters that make up the thesis.