1. Course Description

The aim of this course is to give you an idea of what qualitative research is and an overview of the different types of research techniques. In particular, students will learn about interviewing and observation methods, and consider what can be achieved using these techniques. In the course of half a year, students will experience data acquisition planning, data analysis and reporting, and acquire practical knowledge that will be useful in their post-graduation activities. Places are limited to a maximum of 20 students and will be allocated by lottery.
