

教育の制度と経営

Syllabus Number	ESS-104
Elective	2 credit
OIKAWA, Toshinori

1. Course Description

Acquire basic knowledge of social, institutional and business matters related to modern school education and understand the issues related to them. In addition, acquire an understanding of cooperation between the school and the community and basic knowledge of how to deal with school safety. Specifically, social changes and trends in educational measures to respond to them, public education systems and education-related laws, educational administration systems, school management systems, how to collaborate and collaborate with local communities, and school safety. Regarding crisis management, we will develop classes while incorporating discussions and presentations while giving concrete examples.