

企業・公務員基礎教養

Syllabus Number

CAE-109

Elective

2 credit

KITAMI, Ryoji

1. Course Description

Students in the first year are designed to learn various types of employment examinations of civil services and private companies. In this course, students will learn about the numerical processing and the basics of thesis and interviews through workshops and exercises. Students can also train to be working professionals by learning the ability to think and planning ability for self-directed learning.