1. 授業の概要(ねらい)

This course is designed to strengthen students' practical English skills necessary to achieve effective communication in their future workplaces. By participating in simulated activities and role plays, students will develop vocabulary skills and learn how to interact professionally in real-life business situations, such as answering interview questions, making business calls, and participating in meetings. This course will also introduce students to standard phrases and characteristics of business writing. Students will learn how to organize information logically and write effective emails, resumes, meeting memos, and short business letters.

2. 授業の到達目標

By the end of the course, students should be able to

- 1. improve practical listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills to communicate effectively in various business contexts.
- 2. write standard business memos, emails, and short business letters.
- 3. develop a clear understanding of appropriate manners, business etiquette and cultural differences in today's global business environment.
