

国際経済論Ⅲ (International EconomyⅢ)

科目ナンバリング ECO-203
選択必修 2単位

中西 俊裕

1. 授業の概要(ねらい)

Course outline: This course aims to give students a firm grounding in international economy from a geopolitical viewpoint. Students who take this course are required to study various aspects of real international economy, such as trade, energy, finance and industry, through the prism of issues including regional and global power balances, alliances, and religious and ethnic conflict. By reading the prepared texts and through debate, participants are expected to foster their own points of view with regard to international economy in an era of uncertainty.

2. 授業の到達目標

Participants will seek to understand the conflicts of interest many states face with others, as well as how governments and private organizations strive to resolve problems. In so doing, students who join this course will gain the ability to present arguments and the skills required for success in an international environment.

3. 成績評価の方法および基準

Assesment of academic achievement is based on reports and discussion in the class.

4. 教科書・参考文献

教科書

Printed texts and articles are distributed as needed. Articles are selected from The Economist, Financial Times, Foreign Affairs and other media.
