

Special Laboratory Work I on Advanced Science and Engineering

Research Subjects
Requisites 4 credit

Each Staff

1. Course Description

Graduate students in the 1st year prepare their research plans, conduct preliminary experiments, and then determine themes of their doctor's thesis research. They can also conduct their doctor's thesis research in other related institutions including universities, public institutions, and private companies.

2. Course Objectives

Graduate students in the 1st year of the doctor's course will start their doctor's thesis research.

3. Grading Policy

Learning results will be evaluated by presentation of progress reports on doctor's thesis research.

4. Textbook and Reference

5. Requirements(Assignments)

Preparation of doctor's thesis.

6. Note

7. Schedule

Graduate students will report on progress of their doctor's thesis research under the direction of their academic supervisors.