Syllabus Number 8C210

Major Course: Basic

Elective Requisites 2
credit

YAKU, Hitoshi

1. Course Description

Some of the projects that administration is currently carrying out will be picked up and explained. Because such themes are likely to be asked in the essay test of the civil service examination, it is important to learn them early to prepare for the civil service examination.

In this syllabus, I use numbers 11 to 20 consecutive from the Culture for public employees I.

In this class, you will acquire knowledge, techniques and attitudes about DP 3.

This class is offered by the teacher with practical experience.

2. Course Objectives

1 Students can master fundamental knowledge about the types of jobs and the contents of public employees. The types, the competition rate, and the contents of the civil service examination, etc.

2 Students can deepen the understanding of some of the themes the administration is presently carrying out, and to be able to express his/her opinion on these themes.
