

Seminar III

Syllabus Number 8B301

Major Course: Basic

Requisites 2 credit

ARAI, Yoshio

1. Course Description

This seminar targets to get the skills to find, understand and discuss unknown things through the introductory works for the research and analysis to know and understand the region. Multi-days fieldtrip to Shibuya, Tokyo will be held. This seminar relates to DP1 - DP3.

2. Course Objectives

The students will get the knowledge and skills to analyze and understand the social and industrial conditions in the region. They will also gain the abilities to cope with the regional issues.

3. Grading Policy

Presentation materials, oral presentation, and discussion in the seminar (50%), report (50%).

4. Textbook and Reference

Reference

The reference materials will be indicated in the class.

5. Requirements(Assignments)

Homework as literature reading and collecting the data on the targeted region will be assigned. For the preparation, 40 hours or more working will be required in total.

6. Note

Good preparation, perfect attendance, clear presentation, active discussion and the elaborate report are requested.

7. Schedule

- [1] Orientation
- [2] presentations as self-introduction
- [3] Literature reading on the overview of Shibuya, Tokyo (1)
- [4] Literature reading on the overview of Shibuya, Tokyo (2)
- [5] Literature reading on the overview of Shibuya, Tokyo (3)
- [6] Discussion on the overview of Shibuya, Tokyo
- [7] Literature reading on urban redevelopment in Shibuya, Tokyo (1)
- [8] Literature reading on urban redevelopment in Shibuya, Tokyo (2)
- [9] Literature reading on urban redevelopment in Shibuya, Tokyo (3)
- [10] Literature reading on urban redevelopment in Shibuya, Tokyo (4)
- [11] Discussion on urban redevelopment in Shibuya, Tokyo
- [12] Preparation for the field trip
- [13] Field trip (1st day)
- [14] Field trip (2nd day)
- [15] Discussion on the field trip