1. Course Description

This class is designated to achieve Educational Goals 1, 2, and 3 of the General Basic Subjects. This course aims to help students develop practical English reading and writing skills. The students will learn the basics of writing in English such as formulaic expressions, appropriate wording for typical situations, and linguistic and cultural differences from Japanese sentences.

Most of the study in this course will be done at home with the two tasks (Task A and Task B) of the textbook. The students are supposed to submit each task no later than its deadline. When you finish Task A, you will submit it by mail or online. If your Task A has passed, you will move on to work on Task B. Concerning Task B, the similar process will be repeated. When you know that you have succeeded in both tasks, you are going to apply for the final examination and take it on the fixed date.

2. Course Objectives

The purpose of this course is to enable students to attain an advanced level of proficiency in English

3. Grading Policy

Task A and Task B: 50%

Final test 50%
