

Enterprise Accounting Advanced Course

Special Subjects
Elective 2 credit

ASAI, Koji

1. Course Description

Students will acquire the knowledge and techniques necessary to conduct feasibility studies.

2. Course Objectives

Ability to calculate and evaluate feasibilities of rural projects.

3. Grading Policy

Results of the examination

4. Textbook and Reference

Textbook

Text materials prepared by professor will be distributed to students.

5. Requirements(Assignments)

n/a

6. Note

7. Schedule

- [1] basic knowledge of accounting
- [2] accounting systems
- [3] bookkeeping techniques ①
- [4] bookkeeping techniques ②
- [5] the balance sheet
- [6] the profit or loss statement
- [7] consolidated accounting
- [8] analysis of financial statement
- [9] cost accounting
- [10] short-time decision making
- [11] evaluation of investment choices ①
- [12] evaluation of investment choices ②
- [13] evaluation of investment choices ③
- [14] strategic management accounting
- [15] summary and examination