

Seminar III

Syllabus Number 8B301

Major Course: Basic

Requisites 1 credit

OHIRA YOSHIO

1. Course Description

In this class, students decide on the research themes about the environmental problems and economics. And for the research, students have a discussion, read the books, investigate, and study the solutions.

2. Course Objectives

In this class, the objectives are to explore the solution of the problems through the environmental economic studies and to acquire “skills to propose the solutions to the problems”.

3. Grading Policy

Evaluated according to the results of presentation and research papers

4. Textbook and Reference

5. Requirements(Assignments)

Preparation for presentation and research papers, and review

6. Note

7. Schedule

- [1] Guidance
- [2] Self-introduction and presentation about the research theme 1
- [3] Self-introduction and presentation about the research theme 2
- [4] Decision of research theme and planning the research plan
- [5] Lecture about analysis method
- [6] Literature research 1
- [7] Literature research 2
- [8] Literature research 3
- [9] Literature research 4
- [10] Debate about the research theme
- [11] Discussion of analysis method
- [12] Discussion about the effects for environmental problems by the research
- [13] Presentation for fieldwork 1
- [14] Presentation for fieldwork 2
- [15] Summary