

Seminar V

Syllabus Number 8B401

Major Course: Basic

Requisites 1 credit

TAMA Shinnosuke

1. Course Description

We set themes for economy, business and employment that will lead to your future life and work. In this class, you will develop the ability to present your thoughts through reading and discussing texts on the subject.

Through this class, you will acquire knowledge, skills and attitudes about DP1, DP2 and DP3.

2. Course Objectives

Students can talk about the current state of the economy, businesses and employment in Japan and the world.

Students can talk about their future jobs and ways of working.

Students can share their thoughts on the economy, businesses and employment in Japan and the world.

3. Grading Policy

Participation in each discussion (60%), report presentation (20%), final report (20%)

4. Textbook and Reference

Textbook

We do not use textbooks.

5. Requirements(Assignments)

- As a general rule, your teacher in charge of "Exercise I / II" will be in charge of "Exercise V".

- Please confirm the lesson policy with your instructor at the time of class start.

- Please contact your teacher at any time regarding the status of credit transfer, job hunting, preparation for graduation thesis, etc., and receive advice.

6. Note

7. Schedule