

Seminar V

Syllabus Number

8B401

Special Subjects

Requisites 1 credit

OHIRA YOSHIO

1. Course Description

Students decide the theme of their graduation thesis on their interests. Faculty member guides in writing and presentation.

2. Course Objectives

The objectives in this class are to learn the methods of writing the thesis: finding problems, collecting materials, analyzing, and presenting.

3. Grading Policy

Presentation in the process of completing the graduation thesis, and graduation thesis and presentation of it

4. Textbook and Reference

5. Requirements(Assignments)

Collecting materials, preparation for presentation, and review

6. Note

7. Schedule

- [1] Guidance and examination of the graduation theme
- [2] Decision of the graduation theme
- [3] Presentation about the issues on their theme
- [4] Presentation about the related materials and survey
- [5] Examination of the method of analyzing
- [6] Intermediate presentation and discussion
- [7] writing the graduation thesis
- [8] Presentation of the graduation thesis and comments
- [9]
- [10]
- [11]
- [12]
- [13]
- [14]
- [15]